Summer at Upper Valley Music Center

UVMC's summer session runs from June 20 through August 27, 2017. Flexibility in scheduling allows families and students to fit in lessons around camps and trips. We offer vocal and instrumental instruction in a variety of styles and some exciting programs, festivals and group classes to challenge musicians of all ages.

Our teachers are among the best in the area and teach all ages, including children, adults, and seniors, from beginning to advanced levels. A listing of our outstanding faculty and their biographies is available on our website.

New students are welcome in the summer. Join us for one or more of our summer programs!

Music Discovery Week!

Offered in partnership with Crossroads Academy

Discover your inner song, drum, trumpet, cello and more! With UVMC's Sing! program at its core, campers will discover music with their voices, hands, fingers and feet over a week of fun-filled lessons, rehearsals and games. In addition to daily Children's Chorus, Instrument Discovery Days will feature families of instruments, giving campers a chance to find the one they love. Campers will also learn the fundamentals of pitch, rhythm, and music notation through lively games and movement activities. Where will your musical path lead? You'll have to join us to discover!

Ages 6-9; July 31- August 4 (M-F), 9 am - 3:30 pm (*Extended Day Program available)

Location: Crossroads Academy, Lyme, NH; Faculty: Christine Greenough

Min 11 / Max 16; Tuition: $325

Extended Day Program: Crossroads offers free Extended Day options from 8:00-9:00 am and from 3:30-5:00 pm to accommodate children who require additional hours of supervision.

Music and Art

The world is filled with many sounds made by many instruments. In this action-packed camp co-presented by Upper Valley Music Center and AVA Gallery & Art Center, campers will create instruments with artists and work with a composer to craft original music with their new instruments. The week culminates with collaborative performances displaying the intersection of visual and musical art.

Sound, Color: Musical Magic!

Offered in partnership with the AVA Gallery and Art Center

Engage with materials of art and music! In the mornings campers will design and craft instruments and in the afternoons they will work with a composer to find their musical voice using elements of composition. We'll have cameo appearances by artists and musicians, too. The week culminates in a performance. All musicians and artists welcome.

Ages 9-12; August 7 - 11 (M-F), 9 am - 4 pm

Location: AVA Gallery & Art Center; Faculty: Travis Ramsey, Murray Ngoima

Min 6 / Max 12; Tuition: $325

Music Video

Offered in partnership with CATV

In this week-long summer program co-presented by the Upper Valley Music Center and CATV, budding videographers and musicians will work together to produce an original music video. The resulting collaboration will be an exciting step into the world of music and video that will have everybody clicking 'share'.

Participants will have a chance to try all parts of the process. While each student will have the chance to shine in an area of their choosing, everyone will participate in creating original music under the guidance of a composer and designing and shooting video with CATV videographers.

Grades 6-8; July 10 - 14 (M-F), 9 am - 3 pm

Location: CATV in White River Jct, VT & Tuck's Rock Dojo in Etna, NH

Faculty: Sophie Bodnar, videography; Travis Ramsey, composition;

Tuck Stocking, composition, sound engineering

Min 10 / Max 14; Tuition: $325

Music & Drama

Take part in the magical journey of Buratino: meet the girl with blue hair, the awful Mr. Karabas-Barabas, and visit the mysterious Field of Miracles in the dead of night! Buratino is a musical that tells the fantastic adventures of one little wooden boy. Based on "The Golden Key or the Adventures of Buratino" by A. Tolstoy and "The Adventures of Pinocchio" by C. Collodi.

In this week of music-making and storytelling, students will prepare ensemble and solo pieces using instruments and their voices, which will be woven together to tell a story of Buratino. Through daily rehearsals, students will develop their musicianship and ensemble skills. The week culminates in a Friday performance including costumes and scenery.

Prior instrumental or voice experience welcome, but not required. Students who do play instruments should bring them each day.

Ages 6-14; July 10-14 (M-F); 9:00 am-3:00 pm

Location: Our Savior Lutheran Church, Hanover, NH

Faculty: Victoria Dobrushina and guests

Min 11 / Max 26; Tuition: $350

Singing for the Stage

A fun and energetic class where students learn the fundamentals of singing and acting using Musical Theater songs. Each day students will be able to perform solo as well as work on ensemble pieces. The week culminates with a performance for friends and family at 12 pm on Friday. Includes individual instruction time for each student.

Tuition: $295

Auditioning Solo

Learn how to become your own best friend on stage for those auditions when you just can't bring an accompanist. Class includes vocalizing, light exercise, and performing a cappella (without accompaniment). Students will strengthen a cappella auditioning via presentation and stage deportment tips, by considering timing, and learning to choose one's "sweet" key. Vocal coach Ellen Nordstrom will also share her experience from coaching students who auditioned and appeared on American Idol, America's Got Talent, The Voice, and for those who often perform the National Anthem for many sports events as well as political venues in NH and VT.

Tuition Assistance

We believe all residents of the Upper Valley, no matter what their financial situation, should have access to quality music education. Tuition assistance is given to a student on the basis of need, availability of funds, and commitment to music. If you are seeking tuition assistance, please complete the Tuition Assistance application, which can be found at www.uvmusic.org or at the front desk.

Tuition Assistance applications are accepted on a rolling basis, but must be completed before the first scheduled lesson or class. Families who receive tuition assistance are expected to support UVMC as volunteers for events, through committee membership, or by assisting in our fundraising endeavors. More information on this and other expectations for families receiving aid is outlined in the notification of tuition assistance. Tuition assistance is granted based on a formula that considers total family income and family size. Questions or specific requests about tuition assistance should be made to the Executive Director.

All information is held in strictest confidence. You will be notified of your tuition assistance award, if any, and invoiced for the remaining amount. Please refer to www.uvmusic.org and the UVMC Student Handbook for further information on UVMC's tuition assistance policy.

The Upper Valley Music Center was incorporated as a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization in 1995 and now serves more than 800 students from around 70 Upper Valley communities. UVMC's mission is to provide and promote the best in music education and ensemble opportunities for children and adults in the Upper Valley and beyond. For full and more up-to-date information on programs and our wonderful faculty, please visit www.uvmusic.org.
